Extra Effort Award
In Memory of Dot (Dorothy) Tartaglio

History of the Award
Dorothy ‘Dot’ Tartaglio consistently exhibited an energetic, enthusiastic approach to her responsibilities and a willingness to go beyond the call of duty. The Extra Effort Award, first presented in 1987, was renamed in her memory in 1993 after her death. Dot was a long-standing employee and a former vice-president of Home Nursing Agency.

Who is eligible?
Any full-time, part-time, or PRN employee of Home Nursing Agency is eligible.
Nominees should:
- Reflect a strong commitment to the ideals of the Agency at work and in the community.
- Exhibit consistent energy, enthusiasm and willingly put forth the effort to make a difference for co-workers and the people entrusted within the Agency’s care.

How is the recipient honored?
Recipients will:
- Receive $250 cash.
- Receive a commemorative award.
- Have their names inscribed on a plaque in the Agency boardroom.
- Have an article sent to their local papers acknowledging receipt of the award.
